

If I Were Love ...

Written + Illustrated by

If I were Love ...

What would I do? Who would I be?

Where would I go? What would I see?

If I were Love ...

*I would be like family;
like my grandma, mom and sister
who take good care of me.*

If I were Love ...

I would be like my brother;
and my dad and my grandpa.
We would be like one another.

I would be family,
if I were Love ...

If I were Love ...

I'd be a horse or a rainbow fish or my dog Bo.

I would bring cuddles, snuggles and wet kisses everywhere I go.

If I were Love ...

I'd take care of the pets
or I'd make people flowers;
I'd be a florist or I'd be a vet.

*If I were Love ...
I'd be unplugged up inside.
I'd have great big waves of Love;
I would be the ocean wide.*

If I were Love ...

*I'd be big like God,
the most powerful me.
I'd be high as the sky
or the world's tallest tree.*

If I were Love ...

I would go everywhere.

I would go to who needed me. I would help and I would care.

If I were Love ...

*I would give money to the poor.
I'd give money to feed everybody;
every day, I'd give more and more.*

If I were Love ...

I would be a friend who's kind.
You could always depend on me.
I would always be easy to find.

A child's drawing on a white background with a blue sky and green ground. At the top, there are white clouds and a smiling yellow sun with red rays. On the left, a small orange house with a blue roof and a blue heart on the wall. In the center, a person with a yellow head and blue body stands on brown shoes. On the right, a large red heart-shaped house with a chimney, containing two small pictures of people. A string of red hearts connects the text to the heart-shaped house.

If I were Love ...

I'd take happiness every place.

I'd live in all the houses and put a smile on every face.

If I were Love ...

I'd hold your hand;

I'd be your teacher

and help you understand.

If I were Love ...

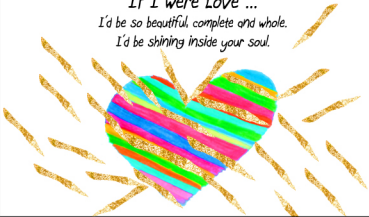

I'd set the tone
so that you know
you're never alone.

*If I were Love ...
I'd be hearts flying everywhere.
You would breathe me just like air.*

*If I were Love ...
I'd be so beautiful, complete and whole.
I'd be shining inside your soul.*

If I were Love ...

What would I do? Who would I be?

Where would I go? What would I see?

If I were Love, I'd just be me!
